Collaboration:

In October 2020, the I Global Symposium UNISERVITATE Program took place. This II Global Symposium will be a new opportunity for sharing, celebrating, and training in service-learning (SL) in higher education worldwide.

Objectives:

- Continue the cycle of Symposiums of the UNISERVITATE Program as a multicultural, global, and plural setting on the contributions of service-learning pedagogy for an integral/whole person education.
- Discuss and research on the spiritual dimension of service-learning and its input to the identity and mission of Catholic Higher Education institutions.
- Share service-learning experiences and institutionalization processes in Higher Education institutions.
- Facilitate exchanges between specialists, authorities, faculty, and students from Higher Education institutions from different cultural contexts around the world on university social commitment and service-learning.

Audience:

- Authorities, researchers, faculty body, and students of:
 - Institutions participating in UNISERVITATE program.
 - Catholic Higher Education institutions in general.
 - Public and private universities and other higher education institutions in general.

Format:

The II Global Symposium UNISERVITATE will be held online with free access (prior registration required). A certificate of participation will be available.

Themes:

1. Service-learning as a path of spirituality.
2. Service-learning as a contribution to whole person education: hands, head, and heart.
3. Service-learning: experiences and institutionalization processes.
